Laurance S. Rockefeller Library

CIIS Alum Associate Membership

The Laurance S. Rockefeller Library is open to the CIIS community for browsing, reading, and use of online resources. Our graduates are most welcome to come back to visit, research, see what's new in our collections, browse new dissertations & theses, and more. If you wish to continue access to CIIS Library resources off-campus, or to take out CIIS books or A/V materials you will need to have a membership.

CIIS Alum Associate Membership Benefits

Graduates of CIIS can join the Library as Associate members with the following benefits:

- Library Use: The Library has extensive reference and other special collections which are available for use in the Library only. You may access these materials whenever the Library is open.
- Borrowing: You may borrow up to six books, dissertations, videos, DVDs, and audio cassettes at a time.
- Online Journals, Online Books & Databases: Alums may access online journals, dissertations, books, and all subscription online databases including PsycINFO, ProQuest Dissertations & Theses and many others.
- Reference Services: CIIS reference librarians will assist you with your personal research. Request reference services by email (askref@ciis.edu), in person, or via the Library's Web site. In order to schedule an appointment via our portal, you will have to have/create a mymail email account. This can be done by logging into your myciis account (<https://my.ciis.edu/ics>) and filling out the following form: https://my.ciis.edu/ICS/IT/Technology.jnz?portlet=Contained_Form. If you don't have access to your my.ciis account, please email portalhelp@ciis.edu

Questions?
